Dear All

Due to everyone's generous contributions, the children at the orphanage do not have any particular needs at the moment (although, as always, colouring books, crayons, pens etc are very welcome). We will be going back to Nepal in September, taking with us the winter clothes previously donated - we had trouble getting them in the cases last time.

What we thought might be a nice idea is if the children at the church could send photos of themselves to the children at the orphanage, and then when we come back from Nepal we will also bring back photos of the children and the orphanage. Like a pen friend idea without the letter writing (although if any child wishes to write a letter, I am sure the Nepali children will reciprocate!).

What we will be doing next is running a Nepali craft stall at the Christmas fair at your church with all the proceeds going towards the day-to-day costs of the orphanage. We have started to bring in craft goods as this helps producers in Nepal. So hopefully the Christmas fair will be good for everybody; the craft producers sell more goods, you get attractive Christmas presents and the orphanage gets the profit. We look forward to seeing you then.

Many thanks for your help as always

Anna, Anjan and all the children at the orphanage in Kathmandu

If anyone would like to send photographs, pens, pencils, colouring books or other craft materials I would be very happy to take them to Anna.
