EDITORIAL

Welcome to the bumper October issue of Magna.

While Neil, our Rector, is on study leave, the Revd. Ken Tombs will be taking all Sunday Services, mid-week funerals and baptisms. Please contact the Revd. Ken Tombs via the Churchwardens, not the Rectory.

The cake shared at the parish party to mark Neil's 25th anniversary of appointment as incumbent

Ray Allen's camera brings us great photos of the Holy Cross Parish Party, a great night out for a Parish who knows how to party, which also marked Neil's happy 25 years as Rector.

We take another dip into Anne Webber's autobiography, with more memories from WW2. We bring you the start of a new series, Reminiscing on a World Cruise; Maria shares with us the trip of a life time. There's Deli Vinyo Buckley-Keogh's "Nemesis" (part 2 of 3) very personal article on childbirth.

And there's plenty more to read in this 36 page bumper edition.
