Welcome to the May issue of Magna.

This month we have a 28 page edition.

Christeen George writes about her visit to Betham school to give a careers talk to class 5T about being an Occupational Psychologist.

There are the London Marathon race results for Mell Vandeveldt who raised money for the NSPCC.

Christeen George gives an account on searching for a well-known Swedish department store in the South of France.

We have a reminiscing article on The Whit Walks by Neil Richardson.

You can see how the newly fitted kitchen now looks.

There is information on various social events and places to visit including The Camilla George Trio playing at Zhinoo in Ealing, a dinner crawl in June and a festival pilgrimage at St Albans.

The Women in the Bible series continues with "Abigail" written by David Clarke.

The "Kirk Spook" story continues.

And there is more....so read on and enjoy!
