MAGNA IS PUBLISHED ON OUR PARISH WEBSITE

<http://www.greenfordmagna.info>

Welcome to the March 2010 edition of Magna.

I can still recall Mac saying, "I love to read Magna each month, there's always something new to read which I can find nowhere else."

You know that when you get a copy of Magna you can expect a good read and this month is no exception

In 'Peabody Boy, We Sang 'em All', chapter one, Alan Kingshott remembers being a baby boomer growing up in a Peabody building in Hammersmith. We are hoping to bring you further chapters in future editions of Magna.

We bring you news about the April Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM) and the May visit to Holy Cross from the people of Gerschede, Essen. In the Cross-Over interview with Dr Christeen George we are given an insight to her life and work as an University Teacher. Ray Allen keeps in touch with his Letter from Lincoln. Neil Richardson writes about his poetry and also writes a short story. Gary Marsh writes about a view of the church from (almost) the outside.

Lent Lunches: Every Saturday in Lent, from 12 noon to 1pm. Join in the activity around the lunch and please volunteer to be in the kitchen for one of these lunches. Moneys raised will go to a school in Mozambique as part of the ALMA link with London, Mozambique and Angola. Within the centre pages are details of Holy Week at Holy Cross, 2010.

And of course there is more inside, including Professor Mary Smallwood's, Roman Historian, look at the Crucifixion.

One of the main ingredients Mac was referring to is the number of people who contribute to Magna and the variety of articles - the more contributors, the better the Parish Magazine. Please write for the next edition of Magna and contact the editorial committee below.
