

The Holy Cross Treasure Hunt, 2010

Monday, 3rd May

How quickly did that come round?

Can you believe that it is almost a year since we were trudging through the messy byways and walking along the canal tow path and sitting in the Coy Carp and wandering around the back end of Harefield, straying from time-to-time into muddy Hertfordshire!

Don't the memories thrill you?

The elated victors in the 2009 Hunt will have the privilege of designing the 2010 event, ably led by Emma Cumming.

Where will it be? That is a dread secret until the day and the very start of the Hunt, at the time and place to be decided by the planning team.

Can you wait?

Nor can I!

St. Paul's Diocesan Choir

You are invited to enjoy a service of readings and music for Easter on Sunday at St. Paul's Cathedral on Sunday, 18th April at 3.15pm.

The music (details are not known yet as to what we will be singing) will be sung by singers from parish choirs from all over the London Diocese. They will be gathering on the Saturday to rehearse from 10.30am to 2.30pm and then again rehearsing from 1pm on the Sunday prior to singing at the service itself.

So this will be one excellent opportunity to hear great music, sit in the amazing environment of Sir Christopher Wren's masterpiece, and enjoy a musical expression of our Easter faith sung by what will be a huge choir, all amateurs, but all really enjoying the experience together.

We can arrange for members of the congregation to travel up together. Nearer the time, a Notice will be put up for you to sign.
