

Summer Gala

in aid of the Brambles Outdoor Centre in the rectory garden
12th June, 2010

The parish experienced another very happy and successful Summer Gala in the rectory garden on Saturday 12th June, graced again by the Worshipful the mayor of the London Borough of Ealing and his consort, which this year is Councillor Rajinder Singh Mann and Councillor Gurmit Kaur Mann. In this picture, you see the organiser and chief inspiration, Bryan Payne, who is greeting the mayoral couple.

By a happy coincidence, the day is also the same as the Trooping of the Colour in Whitehall, and the fly-past of aircraft specially assembled in honour of Her Majesty the Queen follows through with a fly-past over the rectory garden.

A happy coincidence indeed!

This photograph shows part of the fly-past as it flies over Greenford Rectory!

Many stalls of a wide variety of local voluntary organisations were available and the stall holders all said that they were happy with the day and keen to attend again in 2011.

The fly-past was quite amazing and by some strange miracle, we have with us an expert on aviation! Jim Hunter was there, at the microphone, giving us a detailed commentary on the aircraft and their significance to our aviation history.

As in previous years, the Gala offered a wide range of opportunities, from the Crazy Kitchen, to the BBQ kitchen, where very warm temperatures produced wonderful BBQ food for lunch in the Scouts garden and there was even a guided tour of the Old Church thrown in, free of charge.

The Gala is a great day and we hope to do it again with all the trimmings on Saturday, 11th June 2011 and we hope that you will be there again, enjoying all the fun of the Gala and hopefully, the sunshine of a lovely summer day.
