

Thanks for Lunch!

Holy Cross kitchen, Wednesday, 21st July

Wednesday 21st July was the last Wednesday Lunch for Maggie Bannister after a period of 20 years during which she has led the team producing lunches for all and anyone who cared to come in to the church.

The Lunches were very popular, bringing in diners from local schools as well as members of the congregation, and friends from a variety of situations.

What people liked were the excellent quality of food, the low prices, the variety of courses and the opportunity to socialise and relax without having to do the preparation and cooking oneself.

Thank you for your loyalty and hard work, Maggie, and to all the team.

Marion Richardson has agreed to trial her skills in the Church kitchen for a term during which she will attempt to maintain the good standards and also try to create a two-team approach so that the work doesn't always fall on the same shoulders. Wednesday Lunches resume on Wednesday 8th September, 12 noon.
