Holy Cross New Church, 1941

Despite the shortages of manpower and materials caused by the war effort, Fr. Donald Harris, the rector, and the people of Greenford see the completion of their New Church in July, 1941. In July 2011, we will celebrate their amazing achievement and try to feel the sense of vocation and joy that they must have felt.

A minor miracle happened in Greenford in 1941! Please enjoy the events of the 70th anniversary week which are described inside the July edition of Magna Magazine.
