

THE LOAD OF HAY PUB

This pub was on the Ruislip Road close to the River Brent bridge in Greenford.

On September 24th. 1940 a one ton parachute mine (bomb) was dropped on it, five people were killed and two were injured.

This is the atmosphere in which Holy Cross New Church was built. Amazing!